

JANUARY 27, 2014

The Keota City Council met on January 27, 2014, in the city hall for the budget workshop. The meeting was called to order at 7:02 P.M. by Mayor Anthony Cansler.

Council Members answering roll call were Conrad, Davis, Hill, Westendorf and Greiner. City employees present were Osweiler and Conrad.

Motion was made by Conrad to approve the agenda, Greiner seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously.

Conrad presented the police departments expected revenue for the next budget year. The council and Conrad discussed more ways to generate more revenue for the police department and ways to cut expenditures. The council went through the rest of the revenue line accounts and discussed how each of them might increase or decrease.

Osweiler presented a summary of the budget based upon the numbers that were discussed. She will have the final budget for the next council meeting for final review before the public hearing.

The Wesley Methodist Church and United Presbyterian Church signed the deed for the small park with certain stipulations that need to be followed the city. The council would like to have a discussion with the board to better understand why they put stipulations on the deed. Osweiler will ask one of their members to attend a council meeting.

The city is now accepting lifeguard applications for the 2014 season. Applications may be obtained at city hall or the high school. Also, please submit your resume to city hall if you are interested in being the pool manager for 2014. All information must be turned in by February 7, 2014, at noon to city hall.

Motion was made by Westendorf, seconded by Conrad to adjourn. Motion carried unanimously. Meeting adjourned at 8:48 P.M. The next regular scheduled council meeting will be on February 3, 2014, in city hall at 7 p.m.
